

Assignment for Next Week | DUE in section Tuesday, April 8th

*Bring this sheet to class next week with your answers below

Assignment:

- 1) Submit 2 alternative areas of interest and explain how you might focus them in 1–2 sentences. (Consider what you will be able to accomplish in 3–4 double spaced pages!)
- 2) Explain how you might begin to look for primary sources in 1–2 sentences. What kinds of sources might you be looking for? These might include newspaper articles, magazine articles, trade journals, archival records, pressbooks and other promotional material, or interviews. Where might you find them? (For this, you can refer to the resources page on Canvas.)

Questions to think about:

- What are some general topics you're interested in?
- How can you focus your topic via specific films?
- What is the importance of the historical context you're focusing on?
- What kinds of primary sources might be of use to you? Where might you find them?
